WAS USED BY QUEEN

DINNER SERVICE OWNED BY MRS. COBB OF SAVANNAH.

HER ROMANTIC STORY

Courting in England Many Years Ago Was a Very Different Matter From the Prevailing Custom Here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Clark of the Ream hotel of this city and their daughter, Miss Amy, will go to Savannah Thursday morning to visit over Thanksgiving day at the home of Mrs. Clark's mother, Mrs. Harriet B. Cobb. All of Mrs. Cobb's sons and daughters, of whom there are thirteen, will be present with their wives and husbands, the custom of this family being to gather once a year at the parental home, at Thanksgiving or Christmas time, and hold a celebration in genuine old English fashion, for the mother still clings to the manners and customs of her native land with a devotion that is admirable.

Adorning Mrs. Cobb's table on Thanksgiving day will be six plates and two fruit stands of exquisite Haviland china that were part of a service once used where Queen Victoria and her husband, Prince Albert, were the royal guests. Mrs. Cobb came in possession of the china in this way: Her brother, Edward Brand, was the steward of a war vessel in the service of her majesty Queen Victoria. During one of her reviews of the navy, and while inspecting the vessel where Steward Brand was, a storm came up and prevented the queen reaching her yacht for several hours. The dinner hour came and the queen and her husband remained as the guests of the ship's officers. The china service that was used that day on her majesty's table, later became the property of Steward Brand. He visited Mrs. Cobb at her home in Savannah about thirty years ago, and brought to her the pieces now in her possession, because he knew her love and admiration for the queen would enhance their value in her sight. The china is delicately landed in pink and gold. It is safe to say there is not a little rivalry among the young granddaughters for a good place in their grandmother's favor, that they may be remembered with a piece of the china from which the great and good queen ate her dinner that day on her war vessel.

Mrs. Cobb's family consists of eight daughters and five sons, who are: Anna, wife of A. T. Clark of Maryville; Emma, wife of Edward Scott of near Savannah; Mrs. Mary Griffith of Savannah; Henrietta, wife of Joseph D. Reece of Fillmore; Ella, wife of Dr. C. L. Evans of Oregon, Mo.; Minnie, wife of Professor E. H. Williams of the School of Music, Chillicothe; Alice Louise, wife of O. V. Sells of Savannah; Amy, wife of B. L. Ralph of Savannah; Charles Samuel Brand Cobb of O'Lusta, Okla.; Edward Brand Cobb of Bedford, Ia.; Vincent Brand Cobb of Savannah; Albert Henry Brand Cobb of Lamar, Mo.; William Brand Cobb of Bedford, Ia. And there are forty-four grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Cobb has very frequently visited our city, and has made quite a number of friends and acquaintances who will doubtless be interested in knowing a little of her life. She was born in Basingstoke, Hampshire, England, the place of her birth being fifty-two miles from London. Her maiden name was Harriet Brand. Her uncle, General Racout Brand, was a general in the British army. Her parents died when she was a small child, and she was placed in the care of an uncle, Daniel Brand, and grew up in his home at Dorsetshire, England. She attended a private school for girls in company with her uncle's daughter. When she thinks of the rigid discipline she was compelled to endure at school and from her aunt, Mrs. Cobb laments the freedom of girls of today and the lack of true courtesy their freedom has seemed to engender, and especially does she notice the lack of respect the young seem to have for people of mature years. The three accomplishments taught in the girls' schools at Dorsetshire were drawing, French, music and embroidering. While a student at this school, and when taking a walk in the garden one day, Mrs. Cobb first met her husband, Amos Cobb, who was quite a number of years her senior. He was walking about the school campus in company with a gentleman friend, who was a friend of Mrs. Cobb's cousin. Mr. Cobb was the steward of a country estate of some five hundred acres, and he was also a partner with his brother-in-law in the extensive manufacture of brick. Although his fine standing as a business man stood him well in the eyes of Mrs. Cobb's uncle, who was a lawyer, his wife thought his not yet 16-year-old niece was too young to receive particular attention from the young man, and the way of his courtship was not strewn with roses.

"My aunt saw to it that Mr. Cobb was alone with me but one-half hour before we were married," said Mrs. Cobb.

"But how did he—"

"Oh, Mr. Cobb used well the time he had asked for," she said with a bright, girlish smile, "and our troubles were soon over, but not entirely until after the marriage ceremony. My aunt was a Roman Catholic, while I and Mr. Cobb had been reared in the faith of the Church of England. She demanded that I be married by Father Montardier in the castle of East Lullworth, where so many marriages among the nobility were solemnized, and where several weddings in royal families had taken place. I refused to do this at first, but Mr. Cobb persuaded me it was a small matter to yield to when we could first be married in our own church and by a minister of our own faith. So that is the way it was done, and we had two pretty weddings. I wore a sky blue and white silk dress, trimmed in bands of white satin. My bridal veil was of white lace, fastened in place with orange blossoms."

They went at once to their spacious, beautiful home in the county of East Lullworth and lived there twenty years. At the end of that time Mr. Cobb and his brother-in-law lost all of their manufacturing business in a flood that swept the coast town of West Lullworth, which was the worst flood of that age. He concluded to take what he had left and come to America, where he would have better chances for recovering the fortune he had lost. He came to Savannah, Mo., and bought a farm three miles from town.

After three years Mr. Cobb had improved his farm, built a house, and was also operating a stone quarry profitably on his farm. He bought transportation for his wife and nine of their children and sent it to her, with full instructions on making the long journey. Mrs. Cobb left two of her daughters, Mary, who stayed a year with her uncle at Sherness, and Emma, who remained with an aunt in Cork, Ireland, and they were accompanied to America a year later by their uncle. Mrs. Cobb says she was known all the journey over and through to Savannah as "The lady with the nine children," and that she could not have been treated with more kindness and consideration had she been a member of the royal family, and she came all the way without a care or trouble other than she had borrowed. By the time they had reached Savannah the prejudice of her family had melted away and even the children had concluded they were not going to be devoured by cannibals in the new country. Mr. Cobb's death occurred several years ago. He never regretted coming to America. Their old home in England was converted into a government armory years ago.

The banks, dry goods stores, newspaper offices, and many other places will be closed all day, while the grocery stores and some other places will be opened until 10 o'clock.

The union Thanksgiving services are to be held in the First Baptist church at 10:30, and the sermon will be preached by Rev. W. J. Parvin, pastor of the M. E. church, South.

The Thanksgiving services for the Christian Science church will be held at 11 o'clock at the Conservatory recital hall tomorrow morning.

High School Defeats Normal Team.

The high school basket ball team defeated the Normal second team Tuesday afternoon 37 to 27, at the Normal gymnasium.

Six Dollars for Charity.

At the Normal chapel Monday morning Prof. P. O. Landon suggested that a contribution pox be placed in a conspicuous place in the Normal building, the contents of which were to be given to the city charity board, to be used in buying provisions for Thanksgiving for the city's poor. As a result nearly $6 was turned over to the board Wednesday morning.

To Go to Kansas City.

Prof. W. A. Rickenbrode, State Normal registrar, will leave Thursday night for Kansas City, where he will attend the Missouri Valley Commercial Teachers' association, which is an annual meeting of the commercial teachers of Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma.

Mrs. John French of Bolckow, who has been the guest of Mrs. Belle Davenport and family a few days, returned home Wednesday morning.

PROGRAM AT NORMAL ASSEMBLY.

Two Literary Societies Have Joint Meeting Wednesday Morning.

Examinations were put aside at the Normal Wednesday morning for a couple of hours to allow the program of the two literary societies, which was postponed from Tuesday night, to be given. Practically the entire student body was present at the exercises. The principal feature of the program was a debate, "Resolved, that co-operation between employer and employe is the best solution of the labor problem." The affirmative side of the question, which was upheld by Mr. Carpenter, Miss Dykes and Mr. Winn, was awarded the verdict. The negatives were Messrs. Walker, Farris and Breit. The judges were Rev. and Mrs. Claud Miller and Prof. J. A. Lesh. Vocal solos by H. H. Mutz and Prof. P. O. Landon, and readings by Prof. Harry A. Miller and Philip Parcher were the other interesting features of the program.

TO HAVE TAG DAY

IN MARYVILLE FOR BENEFIT OF THE POOR HERE.

THE LODGES BACK OF IT

Money to Be Turned Over to Charity Board and to Be Used by Them—No Date Selected.

Plans are being arranged to have a "tag day" in Maryville within the next few weeks, the money received to be turned over to the charity board, and they to give it to the poor of Maryville. The Owls, Elks and Woodmen lodges are back of the movement and at a meeting of the Owls lodge held Tuesday evening a committee composed of Mayor A. S. Robey, Lawrence Schumacher and Frank Bolin, was appointed to see the other lodges and have a day set aside for "tag day."

It is thought that probably $400 or $500 could be raised, and with this amount the charity board would be able to attend to the wants of the poor of the city during the winter months. Some have already applied to the charity board and Mayor Robey and there are some cases in the city where the people are in need of clothing and other articles.

Mrs. James W. Neal, living east of Clearmont, was in the city Wednesday on her way home from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Dr. S. Meredith of Caldwell county, Missouri, and with a nephew, Dr. O. O. Meredith of Breckenridge, Mo., and a niece, Mrs. Roy Griffing of Cant. Mo. On her way home she stopped a day at Darlington to visit Mrs. John Hall.

GOLDEN WEDDING

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED BY MR. AND MRS. JAMES KING.

CAME TO HOPKINS IN 1886

All the Children, Except One, Spent the Day With Their Parents—Friends Also Called.

On November 28, 1861, at Greensburg, Pa., occurred the marriage of James King and Mary E. Earheart, and November 28, 1911, at Hopkins, this same couple, surrounded by their children and friends, celebrated their golden anniversary.

Seldom is one privileged to attend the fiftieth wedding celebration of as fine and young a looking couple as Mr. and Mrs. King. The day of their marriage, fifty years ago, was quite different from today. According to Mr. King's remembrance of it the day was warm and rainy, but Mrs. King seemed to think that "Jim" was rattled and that the day was bright and sunny.

Mr. and Mrs. King lived in Pennsylvania until the fall of 1870, when they moved to Lee county, Iowa, and from there to Worth county, Missouri, in 1880. Mr. King lived in Sheridan, or rather farmed the ground where Sheridan now stands.

They came to Hopkins in 1886 and have lived here continuously ever since, Mr. King being associated with his sons in the stock and butcher business.

Mr. and Mrs. King are both in excellent health, and are happy and contented. A trip to Colorado two years ago is considered by them as one of the greatest pleasures of their life. Mr. King would like to live his life over again, provided he could begin with his present knowledge. He thinks he could improve on some of the things in life. Mrs. King, however, is satisfied to take a well earned rest, and has no desire to live life over again.

The four sons, William, John and Samuel, of Hopkins, and Daniel of Maryville, with their families, also one daughter, Mrs. Eliza Routh of Norfolk, Neb., spent the day with their parents, and enjoyed a family visit. One daughter, Mrs. John Stingley of Denver was unable to be present.

All afternoon friends called at the home, bringing with them tokens of affection and words of good cheer. One gift in particular that was very much appreciated by Mrs. King was a beautiful gold brooch presented by the Royal Neighbors.

Mrs. J. C. Blakely of St. Joseph, who has been visiting her brother, William Jackson, returned home Wednesday.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

The Allen-Beattie Wedding.

One of the prettiest weddings that has occurred in this city for some time was that of Miss Mabel Allen and Mr. Murrell L. Beattie, which took place Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Allen, 302 West Second street. The wedding guests were received by Dr. and Mrs. Allen, who were assisted by an uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beattie of St. Joseph. Mrs. Allen was handsomely attired in a black lace gown.

The home presented a beautiful appearance in profuse decorations of palms, ferns and southern smilax, with white roses and lilies of the valley. The portierres between the library, parlors and living rooms were of woven smilax. Two aisles formed of columns wound with smilax and topped with crystal baskets of lilies of the valley led to the altar, the bride and her bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Beattie of Newport, Ark., and the matron of honor, Mrs. F. W. Crow, passing down one aisle, and the bridegroom and his attendants, Mr. George Jay, Jr., of Shenandoah and Mr. Harry Emmert of Tarkio, passing through the other aisle, the bride and groom meeting at the chancel. Dr. J. S. Ford of the First Methodist Episcopal church performed the ceremony. The altar was banked with palms, ferns and smilax. Preceding the appearance of the bride and groom Mrs. D. J. Thomas sang "Annie Laurie." The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Dr. D. J. Thomas, and during the ceremony he gave a nocturne by Chopin. After the ceremony and while congratulations were being given the happy couple, Mrs. Thomas sang the bridal song from "The Rose Maiden." A three-course wedding luncheon was served the guests in the dining room from small tables, all centered with crystal baskets of white flowers and ferns. The bride's table was centered with a large crystal basket of white roses and ferns. Ropes of smilax extended from the chandeliers to the four corners of the table, where they were fastened with white tulle. The ices were served in the form of lovers' knots and cakes were in the shape of hearts.

The bride's gown was a beautiful creation of white marquisettte, handpainted in pink flowers and trimmed with French roses, over a robe of baby blue satin messaline. She carried a white prayer book. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Beattie, sister of the bridegroom, wore a pink marquisette over pink satin with trimmings of Irish lace. She carried a large bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The matron of honor, Mrs. F. W. Crow, wore a gown of pale blue liberty satin trimmed with Venetian lace, and carried Killarney roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Beattie left on the Burlington train for Chicago for a several days' honeymoon trip. They will be at home after January 1 at the Dr. Stinson residence, at the corner of Fillmore and Thompson streets.

Mrs. Beattie is one of Maryville's most accomplished and popular young women. Mr. Beattie is a traveling salesman for the John S. Brittain Dry Goods company of St. Joseph and is held in high esteem by all who know him.

The wedding guests included: Mrs. M. G. Tate and daughters, Misses Julia and Jeannette Tate; Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eversole, Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crow, Dr. Harry Stinson, Miss Lela Bonewitz, Dr. Frank Wallis, Misses Della and Kittie Grems, of this city. The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sanders, Dr. and Mrs. Kahill, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Casper, Mr. and

MRS. McGILL BROKE DOWN

Gives the Real Facts in Regard to Her Case and Tells How She Suffered.

Jonesboro, Ark.—"I suffered a complete break down in health, some time ago," writes Mrs. A. McGill, from this place. "I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried different remedies, but they did me no good.

One day, I got a bottle of Cardui. It did me so much good, I was surprised, and took some more.

Before I took Cardui, I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. McGill, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui.

Such testimony, from earnest women, surely indicates the great value of this tonic remedy, for diseases peculiar to women. Are you a sufferer? Yes? Cardui is the medicine you need. We urge you to try it.

Shakespearean Division Met.

On Tuesday afternoon, amid the howling of the wind and raging of the storm, a goodly number of the Shakespeare department of the Twentieth Century club met at the home of Mrs. Scribner Beech, and with Mrs. George P. Bellows as leader, accompanied Macbeth on his last gruesome visit to the weird witches in their dismal cavern, sitting around their seething cauldron watching its ghoulish view (Macbeth, Act IV). But as "the night is long that never finds a day," so the trip was ended, and at roll call each member answered with a thought brought from their frightful journey. Especially realistic was the description given by Mrs. George P. Bellows, who in turn called up Miss Alma Nash, who told what the three figures signify which rose from the witches' cauldron to speak to Macbeth. Mrs. Anderson Craig gave a description and interpretation of the things seen by Macbeth in the witches cavern. Mrs. E. G. Orear, for Mrs. Horace Leet, who is out of town, gave a good short story of old Druidical mythology. Mrs. D. J. Thomas, the president, who was unable to be present, sent a paper for Mrs. W. C. Pierce, whose place she is filling while Mrs. Pierce is away. Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend read the paper "Was MacDuff a Coward in Fleeing to England and Leaving His Wife and Child?" Mrs. O. C. Hanna answered well the questions, "What is the symbolism of the eight kings?" and "Does Hecate get her revenge?" Mrs. Scribner Beech, for Mrs. Berney Harris, who was absent, read her paper, "Where Are the Second and Third Scenes of Act IV Placed, and is the Unity of Action Marred by These Changes."

Mrs. E. G. Orear gave the word drill for Mrs. J. F. Montgomery, who was ill; Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend gave a very interesting round table talk of current events; Mrs. Scribner Beech gave the critic's report, and then, feeling that the ladies were well worn with their varied and doleful experiences in following the career of the murderous Macbeth, served them with refreshments. Mrs. C. C. Corwin, vice president, in the absence of Mrs. D. J. Thomas, president, ably filled the chair. The next meeting will be held with Miss Adella Grems.

Mrs. Shelton Entertained.

Mrs. Lillie Shelton entertained the B. A. club at her home, in the Parvin flats, Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. J. Emmett Beal of Oelrichs, S. D., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Anna Snyder, and will leave in a few days for her home. Mrs. Shelton was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. J. A. Lesh. A letter from an out-of-town member of the club, Mrs. Frank Norton of St. Louis, and her sisters, Misses Emma and Maggie Paschal, received by Mrs. W. J. Toel, was read by her at Tuesday's meeting. The letter contained many things that brought up memories of school days and old club meetings, which was much appreciated. In acknowledgement of the letter, the club voted to give the St. Louis member a post card shower, which was done Wednesday. Two piano numbers were given by Miss Bird Shelton, daughter of the hostess; two vocal numbers by the guest of honor, one "You Can't Guess What He Wrote On My Slate," a character song, and the second "Good-night, Dear." A pleasant feature of the afternoon were some old-time tin type pictures exhibited by the members. One out-of-town member was present, Mrs. F. I. Dunn of Bolckow. The other members present were: Mrs. B. E. Condon, Mrs. W. O. Swinford, Mrs. O. L. Holmes, Mrs. Gallatin Craig, Mrs. W. J. Toel, Mrs. J. W. Herren, Mrs. J. R. Brink, Mrs. O. C. Hanna, Mrs. J. W. Ray, Mrs. G. L. Wilfley, Mrs. Emmett Beal and the hostess.

GRAY HAIRS VANISHED.

Restored to Natural Color by Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of 75, while our mothers have white hair before they are 50. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy, and gradually restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days, on account of souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulhpur Hair Remedy the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair, but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow.

Get a bottle from your druggist today. Use it and see for yourself how quickly dandruff goes and gray hairs vanish.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agents, Koch Pharmacy.

TO-MORROW
THANKSGIVING DAY
This Store will be Closed all day

Alderman Dry Goods Co.
114-116-118 WEST THIRD STREET ✣ ✣ ✣ MARYVILLE MO.

Beginning Friday We Will Place Our Suits On Sale at Biggest Reductions of the Year

THERE are no "ifs" or "ands" about a sale which this store exploits. And this sale is an excellent example of the way we conduct all sales. To reduce stock is our aim. Greatly reduced prices is our method. No juggling of prices or hidden values—everything in plain figures and values rightly indicated.

Ten days ago we advertised the first reductions of suits. Now we find that we have fairly complete assortments so we again lower prices. Our garments are known to be always reasonably priced and for that reason, principally, we have built this enormous suit business. Every garment we offer contains only those style features which are correct.

But tastes differ—one style will be quickly chosen while another, no less stylish, and for no accountable reason, will sell more slowly. To hasten selling, prices are reduced. All we ask, therefore, is that you look at these suits. You are sure that the values are right, that there is no misrepresentation, that the styles are correct; now see what you can save.

At $30.00 Suits which formerly sold for $40.00; very best styles and materials.

At $22.50 Suits which carry $35.00 price tags; good opportunities for rare value finding.

At $19.50 Our regular $30.00 suits; best values to be found any where.

At $16.50 Our $25.00 suits. The price on which we specialize and, therefore, offer the greatest values.

At $13.75 Suits formerly priced at $20.00. Smart styles; excellent values.

IN THESE ASSORTMENTS ARE ALL SIZES; EVERY TYPE OF FIGURE CAN BE CORRECTLY FITTED.

An Opportunity to Get Dresses at Little Cost

To collect a really good exhibit of stylish dresses requires much thought and style knowledge. Our showing reveals the care with which we have selected each costume.

Most of the dresses are made of serges, the most used material today, in desirable shades. Corduroys which are also in good demand are given quite a complete representation. The dresses are beautifully made and designed and most becoming to nearly every type. Prices are much reduced as these quotations prove:

DON'T EXPERIMENT.

You Will Make No Mistake if You Follow This Maryville Citizen's Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys.

If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are all symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is known to cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has cured many stubborn cases in Maryville. Follow the advice of a Maryville citizen and be cured yourself.

Mrs. A. Weidman, East Thompson street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I had terrible pains in my kidneys and was also bothered by the kidney secretions. The contraction of a cold or a change in the weather was sure to increase my suffering. I used every remedy that I thought would help me, but met with indifferent success. I had about despaired of ever finding relief, when I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at Charles A. Love's drug store and found them to be especially adapted to my case. I was soon free from all aches and pains and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition. I have enjoyed excellent health since then and I know that my cure is a permanent one."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SENT HYDE JURY FROM COURTROOM

State Endeavored to Get New Testimony Into Record.

REFUSED TO PERMIT QUESTIONS

Examination of Witness Was to Have Shown Intent of Defendant to Kill Wife Also as Part of Plan to Get Property.

Kansas City, Nov. 29.—The state made an effort to get the intimation before the jury in the Hyde case that it was part of the alleged plan of Dr. B. C. Hyde to murder his wife along with the other Swope heirs so he might obtain her share of the philanthropist's estate. Judge Porterfield nipped the plan in the bud, however, and refused to permit J. A. Reed, special prosecutor, to examine Stuart Fleming further along that line.

The effort of the state came in the direct examination of Mr. Fleming, a cousin of Mrs. Hyde and one of the executors of Col. Swope's will. The most dramatic incident of the afternoon of excitement came when Mr. Reed asked Mr. Fleming to tell about a conversation he had with Dr. Hyde just after the death of Col. Swope.

"We don't want to encounter evidence and have it brought before this jury until we know what it is," Mr. Walsh said.

Mr. Reed walked to the judge's bench and in a low tone, so the jury could not hear said:

"If your honor please, I expect to prove that the defendant had a conversation with Mr. Fleming about wills and that Dr. Hyde asked Mr. Fleming to draw a will for his wife in which all of her property at her death would revert to him and his property to her."

"Then they want to try to show that Dr. Hyde intended to murder his wife?" Mr. Walsh shouted.

"We just want to show the consummation of the defendant's acts," Mr. Reed retorted.

The statements were getting too warm for the jury to hear and besides the attorneys had forgotten about speaking in a low tone. Judge Porterfield ordered the jury taken from the room. The excitement in the courtroom was intense. The spectators leaned forward in their seats and a deathlike stillness settled over the room after Mr. Walsh had voiced the intimation of the state.

"Mr. Fleming said the defendant told him he didn't know whether he could get the property of his wife if there was no child born." Mr. Reed was interrupted by Judge Porterfield just as he was finishing that statement.

"There isn't a man in this county who, when he went to a lawyer and found what the law was, would not ask for wills for himself and his wife," Judge Porterfield said firmly.

"I would as soon have my two hands cut off as to tote a will to my wife," Mr. Reed exclaimed in reply. "It appears that as soon as the defendant learned the law on that point he asked for the wills——"

"So would any innocent man," Judge Porterfield again interrupted. Judge Porterfield sustained the objection to the conversation regarding the wills.

BROUGHT VICTIM'S BODY HOME

Young Farmer's Son Disappears After Leaving Buggy With Corpse at Father's Gate.

Moline, Kan., Nov. 29.—With a dead girl in the seat beside him, Don Brittain, son of a farmer living near Elk Falls, drove up to his father's home in the evening, hitched the horse at the gate and disappeared. The body was that of Maude Bingham, 18 years old, the young man's sweetheart. The two had gone riding early in the afternoon, at which time the girl apparently was in the best of health.

An examination by the coroner tended to show that death was due to a drug taken because of the young woman's condition. The contents of the stomach have been sent to the state chemist for analysis. A coroner's inquest will be held December 11.

NO DRINKS IN CHOP SUEY JOINTS

St. Joseph Chinese Restaurants Said to Have Served Intoxicants to Young Girls and Boys.

St. Joseph, Nov. 29.—By order of the board of police commissioners, the chop suey restaurants here ceased serving intoxicating drinks. The Chinese restaurants are in rooms over saloons. Complaint was made that drinks were dispensed to girls and boys. For some time ministers have been conducting a crusade against these places, but the police insisted that the law was not violated. However, John D. McNeeley, president of the police board, said there was so much criticism that it was decided to issue the order.

Wichita, Nov. 29.—That kafir corn can be ground into flour suitable for flapjacks, waffles, gems, muffins and breakfast dainties of other names, is proved here by a miller, who has solved the secret of grinding the forage product in such a way that it makes delicious morning tempters. Millers here began experiments some time ago with kafir corn to ascertain if it could be made into anything other than stock feed, and one of them has just placed on the market kafir corn flour, not meal, in small packages.

Is your table nice enough for a Thanksgiving dinner?

Dear Amy:-

You and Bob must take Thanksgiving dinner with us. John has just made a good business deal, and bought me a new dining room set. I want "to show it off."

I'm not bashful about confessing this to an old friend like you, Amy. We women all do love pretty homes. If husbands, who can easily afford it, only knew how much htppiness they could give their wives by turning them loose in a furniture store, to buy what they wanted, wouldn't the furniture fly, though?

Lovingly,
Lou.

The Big Horn Basin and Yellowstone Valley Have an Abundance of Water for Irrigation Purposes

The Government has made ample provision to supply each and every farmer under its canals with sufficient water during the crop growing season to cover each and every acre of his farm two feet deep. This is equal to twelve heavy rains of two inches each. Just think what it would have meant to your community during the crop growing season, just closed, if your farmers could have turned on twelve two-inch rains at will. You can do this next year and every year thereafter as long as you are farming, if you will go with me to Powell, Wyoming, and file on one of the Government irrigated homesteads, now ready for entry.

TWO LIVES.

Two babes were born in the self-same town,
On the very same bright day.
They laughed and cried in their mothers' arms
In the very, self-same way;
And both seemed pure and innocent
As falling flakes of snow;
But one of them lived in the terraced house
And one in the street below.

Two children played in the self-same town,
And the children both were fair;
But one had curls brushed smooth and round,
The other had tangled hair.
The children both grew up apace,
As other children grow,
But one of them lived in the terraced house
And one in the streets below.

Two maidens wrought in the self-same town,
And one was wedded and loved.
The other saw through the curtains part
The world where her sister moved,
And one was smiling, a happy bride,
The other knew care and woe,
For one of them lived in a terraced house
And one in the street below.

Two women lay dead in the self-same town,
And one had tender care,
The other was left to die alone
On her pallet so thin and bare.
One had many to mourn her loss,
For the other few tears would flow,
For one had lived in the terraced house
And one in the streets below.

If Jesus, who died for rich and poor,
In wondrous holy love,
Took both the sisters in his arms
And carried them above,
Then all the difference vanished quite,
For in heaven none would know
Which of them lived in the terraced house
And which in the street below.

WAS USED BY QUEEN

DINNER SERVICE OWNED BY MRS. COBB OF SAVANNAH.

HER ROMANTIC STORY

Courting in England Many Years Ago Was a Very Different Matter From the Prevailing Custom Here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Clark of the Ream hotel of this city and their daughter, Miss Amy, will go to Savannah Thursday morning to visit over Thanksgiving day at the home of Mrs. Clark's mother, Mrs. Harriet B. Cobb. All of Mrs. Cobb's sons and daughters, of whom there are thirteen, will be present with their wives and husbands, the custom of this family being to gather once a year at the parental home, at Thanksgiving or Christmas time, and hold a celebration in genuine old English fashion, for the mother still clings to the manners and customs of her native land with a devotion that is admirable.

Adorning Mrs. Cobb's table on Thanksgiving day will be six plates and two fruit stands of exquisite Haviland china that were part of a service once used where Queen Victoria and her husband, Prince Albert, were the royal guests. Mrs. Cobb came in possession of the china in this way: Her brother, Edward Brand, was the steward of a war vessel in the service of her majesty Queen Victoria. During one of her reviews of the navy, and while inspecting the vessel where Steward Brand was, a storm came up and prevented the queen reaching her yacht for several hours. The dinner hour came and the queen and her husband remained as the guests of the ship's officers. The china service that was used that day on her majesty's table, later became the property of Steward Brand. He visited Mrs. Cobb at her home in Savannah about thirty years ago, and brought to her the pieces now in her possession, because he knew her love and admiration for the queen would enhance their value in her sight. The china is delicately banded in pink and gold. It is safe to say there is not a little rivalry among the young granddaughters for a good place in their grandmother's favor, that they may be remembered with a piece of the china from which the great and good queen ate her dinner that day on her war vessel.

Mrs. Cobb's family consists of eight daughters and five sons, who are: Anna, wife of A. T. Clark of Maryville; Emma, wife of Edward Scott of near Savannah; Mrs. Mary Griffith of Savannah; Henrietta, wife of Joseph D. Reece of Fillmore; Ella, wife of Dr. C. L. Evans of Oregon, Mo.; Minnie, wife of Professor E. H. Williams of the School of Music, Chillicothe; Alice Louise, wife of O. V. Sells of Savannah; Amy, wife of B. L. Ralph of Savannah; Charles Samuel Brand Cobb of O'Lusta, Okla.; Edward Brand Cobb of Bedford, Ia.; Vincent Brand Cobb of Savannah; Albert Henry Brand Cobb of Lamar, Mo.; William Brand Cobb of Bedford, Ia. And there are forty-four grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Cobb has very frequently visited our city, and has made quite a number of friends and acquaintances who will doubtless be interested in knowing a little of her life. She was born in Basingstoke, Hampshire, England, the place of her birth being fifty-two miles from London. Her maiden name was Harriet Brand. Her uncle, General Racout Brand, was a general in the British army. Her parents died when she was a small child, and she was placed in the care of an uncle, Daniel Brand, and grew up in his home at Dorsetshire, England. She attended a private school for girls in company with her uncle's daughter. When she thinks of the rigid discipline she was compelled to endure at school and from her aunt, Mrs. Cobb laments the freedom of girls of today and the lack of true courtesy their freedom has seemed to engender, and especially does she notice the lack of respect the young seem to have for people of mature years. The three accomplishments taught in the girls' schools at Dorsetshire were drawing, French, music and embroidering. While a student at this school, and when taking a walk in the garden one day, Mrs. Cobb first met her husband, Amos Cobb, who was quite a number of years her senior. He was walking about the school campus in company with a gentleman friend, who was a friend of Mrs. Cobb's cousin. Mr. Cobb was the steward of a country estate of some five hundred acres, and he was also a partner with his brother-in-law in the extensive manufacture of brick. Although his fine standing as a business man stood him well in the eyes of Mrs. Cobb's uncle, who was a lawyer, his wife thought his not yet 16-year-old niece was too young to receive particular attention from the young man, and the way of his courtship was not strewn with roses.

"My aunt saw to it that Mr. Cobb was alone with me but one-half hour before we were married," said Mrs. Cobb.

"But how did he—"

"Oh, Mr. Cobb used well the time he had asked for," she said with a bright, girlish smile, "and our troubles were soon over, but not entirely until after the marriage ceremony. My aunt was a Roman Catholic, while I and Mr. Cobb had been reared in the faith of the Church of England. She demanded that I be married by Father Montardier in the castle of East Lullworth, where so many marriages among the nobility were solemnized, and where several weddings in royal families had taken place. I refused to do this at first, but Mr. Cobb persuaded me it was a small matter to yield to when we could first be married in our own church and by a minister of our own faith. So that is the way it was done, and we had two pretty weddings. I wore a sky blue and white silk dress, trimmed in bands of white satin. My bridal veil was of white lace, fastened in place with orange blossoms."

They went at once to their spacious, beautiful home in the county of East Lullworth and lived there twenty years. At the end of that time Mr. Cobb and his brother-in-law lost all of their manufacturing business in a flood that swept the coast town of West Lullworth, which was the worst flood of that age. He concluded to take what he had left and come to America, where he would have better chances for recovering the fortune he had lost. He came to Savannah, Mo., and bought a farm three miles from town.

After three years Mr. Cobb had improved his farm, built a house, and was also operating a stone quarry profitably on his farm. He bought transportation for his wife and nine of their children and sent it to her, with full instructions on making the long journey. Mrs. Cobb left two of her daughters, Mary, who stayed a year with her uncle at Sherness, and Emma, who remained with an aunt in Cork, Ireland, and they were accompanied to America a year later by their uncle. Mrs. Cobb says she was known all the journey over and through to Savannah as "The lady with the nine children," and that she could not have been treated with more kindness and consideration had she been a member of the royal family, and she came all the way without a care or trouble other than she had borrowed. By the time they had reached Savannah the prejudice of her family had melted away and even the children had concluded they were not going to be devoured by cannibals in the new country. Mr. Cobb's death occurred several years ago. He never regretted coming to America. Their old home in England was converted into a government armory years ago.

Six Dollars for Charity.

At the Normal chapel Monday morning Prof. P. O. Landon suggested that a contribution pox be placed in a conspicuous place in the Normal building, the contents of which were to be given to the city charity board, to be used in buying provisions for Thanksgiving for the city's poor. As a result nearly $6 was turned over to the board Wednesday morning.

PROGRAM AT NORMAL ASSEMBLY.

Two Literary Societies Have Joint Meeting Wednesday Morning.

Examinations were put aside at the Normal Wednesday morning for a couple of hours to allow the program of the two literary societies, which was postponed from Tuesday night, to be given. Practically the entire student body was present at the exercises. The principal feature of the program was a debate, "Resolved, that co-operation between employer and employe is the best solution of the labor problem." The affirmative side of the question, which was upheld by Mr. Carpenter, Miss Dykes and Mr. Winn, was awarded the verdict. The negatives were Messrs. Walker, Farris and Breit. The judges were Rev. and Mrs. Claud Miller and Prof. J. A. Lesh. Vocal solos by H. H. Mutz and Prof. P. O. Landon, and readings by Prof. Harry A. Miller and Philip Parcher were the other interesting features of the program.

TO HAVE TAG DAY

IN MARYVILLE FOR BENEFIT OF THE POOR HERE.

THE LODGES BACK OF IT

Money to Be Turned Over to Charity Board and to Be Used by Them—No Date Selected.

Plans are being arranged to have a "tag day" in Maryville within the next few weeks, the money received to be turned over to the charity board, and they to give it to the poor of Maryville. The Owls, Elks and Woodmen lodges are back of the movement, and at a meeting of the Owls lodge held Tuesday evening a committee composed of Mayor A. S. Robey, Lawrence Schumacher and Frank Bolin, was appointed to see the other lodges and have a day set aside for "tag day."

It is thought that probably $400 or $500 could be raised, and with this amount the charity board would be able to attend to the wants of the poor of the city during the winter months. Some have already applied to the charity board and Mayor Robey and there are some cases in the city where the people are in need of clothing and other articles.

Mrs. James W. Neal, living east of Clearmont, was in the city Wednesday on her way home from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Dr. S. Meredith of Caldwell county, Missouri, and with a nephew, Dr. O. O. Meredith of Breckenridge, Mo., and a niece, Mrs. Roy Griffing of Cainr, Mo. On her way home she stopped a day at Darlingtton to visit Mrs. John Hall.

GOLDEN WEDDING

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED BY MR. AND MRS. JAMES KING.

CAME TO HOPKINS IN 1886

All the Children, Except One, Spent the Day With Their Parents—Friends Also Called.

On November 28, 1861, at Greensburg, Pa., occurred the marriage of James King and Mary E. Earheart, and November 28, 1911, at Hopkins, this same couple, surrounded by their children and friends, celebrated their golden anniversary.

Seldom is one privileged to attend the fiftieth wedding celebration of as fine and young a looking couple as Mr. and Mrs. King. The day of their marriage, fifty years ago, was quite different from today. According to Mr. King's remembrance of it the day was warm and rainy, but Mrs. King seemed to think that "Jim" was rattled and that the day was bright and sunny.

Mr. and Mrs. King lived in Pennsylvania until the fall of 1870, when they moved to Lee county, Iowa, and from there to Worth county, Missouri, in 1880. Mr. King lived in Sheridan, or rather farmed the ground where Sheridan now stands.

They came to Hopkins in 1886 and have lived here continuously ever since, Mr. King being associated with his sons in the stock and butcher business.

Mr. and Mrs. King are both in excellent health, and are happy and contented. A trip to Colorado two years ago is considered by them as one of the greatest pleasures of their life. Mr. King would like to live his life over again, provided he could begin with his present knowledge. He thinks he could improve on some of the things in life. Mrs. King, however, is satisfied to take a well earned rest, and has no desire to live life over again.

The four sons, William, John and Samuel, of Hopkins, and Daniel of Maryville, with their families, also one daughter, Mrs. Eliza Routh of Norfolk, Neb., spent the day with their parents, and enjoyed a family visit. One daughter, Mrs. John Stingley of Denver was unable to be present.

All afternoon friends called at the home, bringing with them tokens of affection and words of good cheer. One gift in particular that was very much appreciated by Mrs. King was a beautiful gold brooch presented by the Royal Neighbors.

Mrs. J. C. Blakely of St. Joseph, who has been visiting her brother, William Jackson, returned home Wednesday.

The Allen-Beattie Wedding.

One of the prettiest weddings that has occurred in this city for some time was that of Miss Mabel Allen and Mr. Murrell L. Beattie, which took place Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Allen, 302 West Second street. The wedding guests were received by Dr. and Mrs. Allen, who were assisted by an uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beattie of St. Joseph. Mrs. Allen was handsomely attired in a black lace gown.

The home presented a beautiful appearance in profuse decorations of palms, ferns and southern smilax, with white roses and lilies of the valley. The portierres between the library, parlors and living rooms were of woven smilax. Two aisles formed of columns wound with smilax and topped with crystal baskets of lilies of the valley led to the altar, the bride and her bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Beattie of Newport, Ark., and the matron of honor, Mrs. F. W. Crow, passing down one aisle, and the bridegroom and his attendants, Mr. George Jay, Jr., of Shenandoah and Mr. Harry Emmert of Tarkio, passing through the other aisle, the brids and groom meeting at the chancel. Dr. J. S. Ford of the First Methodist Episcopal church performed the ceremony. The altar was banked with palms, ferns and smilax. Preceding the appearance of the bride and groom Mrs. D. J. Thomas sang "Annie Laurie." The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Dr. D. J. Thomas, and during the ceremony he gave a nocturne by Chopin. After the ceremony and while congratulations were being given the happy couple, Mrs. Thomas sang the bridal song from "The Rose Maiden." A three-course wedding luncheon was served the guests in the dining room from small tables, all centered with crystal baskets of white flowers and ferns. The bride's table was centered with a large crystal basket of white roses and ferns. Ropes of smilax extended from the chandeliers to the four corners of the table, where they were fastened with white tulle. The ices were served in the form of lovers' knots and cakes were in the shape of hearts.

The bride's gown was a beautiful creation of white marquisettte, handpainted in pink flowers and trimmed with French roses, over a robe of baby blue satin messaline. She carried a white prayer book. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Beattie, sister of the bridegroom, wore a pink marquisette over pink satin with trimmings of Irish lace. She carried a large bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The matron of honor, Mrs. F. W. Crow, wore a gown of pale blue liberty satin trimmed with Venetian lace, and carried Killarney roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Beattie left on the Burlington train for Chicago for a several days' honeymoon trip. They will be at home after January 1 at the Dr. Stinson residence, at the corner of Fillmore and Thompson streets.

Mrs. Beattie is one of Maryville's most accomplished and popular young women. Mr. Beattie is a traveling salesman for the John S. Brittain Dry Goods company of St. Joseph and is held in high esteem by all who know him.

The wedding guests included: Mrs. M. G. Tate and daughters, Misses Julia and Jeannette Tate; Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eversole, Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crow, Dr. Harry Stinson, Miss Lela Bonewitz, Dr. Frank Wallis, Misses Della and Kittie Grems, of this city. The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sanders, Dr. and Mrs. Kahill, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Casper, Mr. and

MRS. McGILL BROKE DOWN

Gives the Real Facts In Regard to Her Case and Tells How She Suffered.

Jonesboro, Ark.—"I suffered a complete break down in health, some time ago," writes Mrs. A. McGill, from this place. "I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried different remedies, but they did me no good.

One day, I got a bottle of Cardui. It did me so much good, I was surprised, and took some more.

Before I took Cardui, I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. McGill, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui.

Such testimony, from earnest women, surely indicates the great value of this tonic remedy, for diseases peculiar to women. Are you a sufferer? Yes? Cardui is the medicine you need. We urge you to try it.

Shakespearean Division Met.

On Tuesday afternoon, amid the howling of the wind and raging of the storm, a goodly number of the Shakespeare department of the Twentieth Century club met at the home of Mrs. Scribner Beech, and with Mrs. George P. Bellows as leader, accompanied Macbeth on his last gruesome visit to the weird witches in their dismal cavern, sitting around their seething cauldron watching its ghoulish view (Macbeth, Act IV). But as "the night is long that never finds a day," so the trip was ended, and at roll call each member answered with a thought brought from their frightful journey. Especially realistic was the description given by Mrs. George P. Bellows, who in turn called up Miss Alma Nash, who told what the three figures signify which rose from the witches' cauldron to speak to Macbeth. Mrs. Anderson Craig gave a description and interpretation of the things seen by Macbeth in the witches cavern. Mrs. E. G. Orear, for Mrs. Horace Leet, who is out of town, gave a good short story of old Druidical mythology. Mrs. D. J. Thomas, the president, who was unable to be present, sent a paper for Mrs. W. C. Pierce, whose place she is filling while Mrs. Pierce is away. Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend read the paper "Was MacDuff a Coward in Fleeing to England and Leaving His Wife and Child?" Mrs. O. C. Hanna answered well the questions, "What is the symbolism of the eight kings?" and "Does Hecate get her revenge?" Mrs. Scribner Beech, for Mrs. Berney Harris, who was absent, read her paper, "Where Are the Second and Third Scenes of Act IV Placed, and is the Unity of Action Marred by These Changes."

Mrs. E. G. Orear gave the word drill for Mrs. J. F. Montgomery, who was ill; Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend gave a very interesting round table talk of current events; Mrs. Scribner Beech gave the critic's report, and then, feeling that the ladies were well worn with their varied and doleful experiences in following the career of the murderous Macbeth, served them with refreshments. Mrs. C. C. Corwin, vice president, in the absence of Mrs. D. J. Thomas, president, ably filled the chair. The next meeting will be held with Miss Adella Grems.

Mrs. Shelton Entertained.

Mrs. Lillie Shelton entertained the B. A. club at her home, in the Parvin flats, Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. J. Emmett Beal of Oelrichs, S. D., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Anna Snyder, and will leave in a few days for her home. Mrs. Shelton was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. J. A. Lesh. A letter from an out-of-town member of the club, Mrs. Frank Norton of St. Louis, and her sisters, Misses Emma and Maggie Paschal, received by Mrs. W. J. Toel, was read by her at Tuesday's meeting. The letter contained many things that brought up memories of school days and old club meetings, which was much appreciated. In acknowledgement of the letter, the club voted to give the St. Louis member a post card shower, which was done Wednesday. Two piano numbers were given by Miss Bird Shelton, daughter of the hostess; two vocal numbers by the guest of honor, one "You Can't Guess What He Wrote On My Slate," a character song, and the second "Good-night, Dear." A pleasant feature of the afternoon were some old-time tin type pictures exhibited by the members. One out-of-town member was present, Mrs. F. I. Dunn of Bolckow. The other members present were: Mrs. B. E. Condon, Mrs. W. O. Swinford, Mrs. O. L. Holmes, Mrs. Gallatin Craig, Mrs. W. J. Toel, Mrs. J. W. Herren, Mrs. J. R. Brink, Mrs. O. C. Hanna, Mrs. J. W. Ray, Mrs. G. L. Wilfley, Mrs. Emmett Beal and the hostess.

THANKSGIVING DAY
This Store will be Closed all day

Alderman Dry Goods Co.
114-116-118 WEST THIRD STREET ✣ ✣ ✣ MARYVILLE MO.

Beginning Friday We Will Place Our Suits On Sale at Biggest Reductions of the Year

THERE are no "ifs" or "ands" about a sale which this store exploits. And this sale is an excellent example of the way we conduct all sales. To reduce stock is our aim. Greatly reduced prices is our method. No juggling of prices or hidden values—everything in plain figures and values rightly indicated.

Ten days ago we advertised the first reductions of suits. Now we find that we have fairly complete assortments so we again lower prices. Our garments are known to be always reasonably priced and for that reason, principally, we have built this enormous suit business. Every garment we offer contains only those style features which are correct.

But tastes differ—one style will be quickly chosen while another, no less stylish, and for no accountable reason, will sell more slowly. To hasten selling, prices are reduced. All we ask, therefore, is that you look at these suits. You are sure that the values are right, that there is no misrepresentation, that the styles are correct; now see what you can save.

At $30.00 Suits which formerly sold for $40.00; very best styles and materials.

At $22.50 Suits which carry $35.00 price tags; good opportunities for rare value finding.

At $19.50 Our regular $30.00 suits; best values to be found anywhere.

At $16.50 Our $25.00 suits. The price on which we specialize and, therefore, offer the greatest values.

At $13.75 Suits formerly priced at $20.00. Smart styles; excellent values.

IN THESE ASSORTMENTS ARE ALL SIZES; EVERY TYPE OF FIGURE CAN BE CORRECTLY FITTED.

An Opportunity to Get Dresses at Little Cost

To collect a really good exhibit of stylish dresses requires much thought and style knowledge. Our showing reveals the care with which we have selected each costume.

Most of the dresses are made of serges, the most used material today, in desirable shades. Corduroys which are also in good demand are given quite a complete representation. The dresses are beautifully made and designed and most becoming to nearly every type. Prices are much reduced as these quotations prove:

$20. and $18.50 Dresses, now $15.00
$12.50 Dresses now priced for $10.00
$7.50 Dresses now priced for $5.50
$15. Dresses now priced for $12.50
$10. Dresses now priced for $7.50

Burial will be in Shearer cemetery, west of Hopkins, by the side of the body of the mother of the young men, who was a daughter of J. Q. Adams, formerly of Hopkins.

Miss Emma Kildow left Wednesday for Columbia on a week's visit to Miss Bessie Brown, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown, who is a student at the state university.

Miss Jessie Ladwig of St. Joseph will arrive in the city this evening for a visit over Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Sanders.

GRAY HAIRS VANISHED.

Restored to Natural Color by Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of 75, while our mothers have white hair before they are 50. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy, and gradually restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days, on account of souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulhpur Hair Remedy the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair, but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow.

Get a bottle from your druggist today. Use it and see for yourself how quickly dandruff goes and gray hairs vanish.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agents, Koch Pharmacy.

Brain Leaks.

A good book is a personal friend.

Faith has lighted many a heart through the dark places.

He who sins expecting forgiveness is going to experience disappointment.

There are multitudes of good story tellers; what is needed is more good listeners.

A lot of men think they are progressing when they are really running around in circles.

A square meal will have more influence on a starving man than a freight car full of tracts.

When a man wants to find an excuse for his meanness he doesn't have to exert his thinkery very hard.

A lot of people think they are making sacrifices when they give up something they don't care anything for.

If you are worrying about the cost of the Christmas gift you contemplate giving, you are foolish to give any.

The world is not looking for men who can do "good enough" jobs; it is looking for men who can do the "very best" jobs.

We love to grow reminiscent about the good old times, but the boys of today seldom have to wear trousers made out of dad's discards.

Napoleon and Washington had red hair, but that doesn't make the red-headed boy of today feel any better about it when he is called "brick-top."

A lot of people who look wise and declare that science and the Bible don't jibe believe that science is something they sell back of the prescription case in country drug stores.—The Commoner.

DON'T EXPERIMENT.

You Will Make No Mistake If You Follow This Maryville Citizen's Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys.

If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are all symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is known to cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has cured many stubborn cases in Maryville. Follow the advice of a Maryville citizen and be cured yourself.

Mrs. A. Weidman, East Thompson street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I had terrible pains in my kidneys and was also bothered by the kidney secretions. The contraction of a cold or a change in the weather was sure to increase my suffering. I used every remedy that I thought would help me, but met with indifferent success. I had about despaired of ever finding relief, when I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at Charles A. Love's drug store and found them to be especially adapted to my case. I was soon free from all aches and pains and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition. I have enjoyed excellent health since then and I know that my cure is a permanent one."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SENT HYDE JURY FROM COURTROOM

State Endeavored to Get New Testimony Into Record.

REFUSED TO PERMIT QUESTIONS

Examination of Witness Was to Have Shown Intent of Defendant to Kill Wife Also as Part of Plan to Get Property.

Kansas City, Nov. 29.—The state made an effort to get the intimation before the jury in the Hyde case that it was part of the alleged plan of Dr. B. C. Hyde to murder his wife along with the other Swope heirs so he might obtain her share of the philanthropist's estate. Judge Porterfield nipped the plan in the bud, however, and refused to permit J. A. Reed, special prosecutor, to examine Stuart Fleming further along that line.

The effort of the state came in the direct examination of Mr. Fleming, a cousin of Mrs. Hyde and one of the executors of Col. Swope's will. The most dramatic incident of the afternoon of excitement came when Mr. Reed asked Mr. Fleming to tell about a conversation he had with Dr. Hyde just after the death of Col. Swope.

"We don't want to encounter evidence and have it brought before this jury until we know what it is," Mr. Walsh said.

Mr. Reed walked to the judge's bench and in a low tone, so the jury could not hear said:

"If your honor please, I expect to prove that the defendant had a conversation with Mr. Fleming about wills and that Dr. Hyde asked Mr. Fleming to draw a will for his wife in which all of her property at her death would revert to him and his property to her."

"Then they want to try to show that Dr. Hyde intended to murder his wife?" Mr. Walsh shouted.

"We just want to show the consummation of the defendant's acts," Mr. Reed retorted.

The statements were getting too warm for the jury to hear and besides the attorneys had forgotten about speaking in a low tone. Judge Porterfield ordered the jury taken from the room. The excitement in the courtroom was intense. The spectators leaned forward in their seats and a deathlike stillness settled over the room after Mr. Walsh had voiced the intimation of the state.

"Mr. Fleming said the defendant told him he didn't know whether he could get the property of his wife if there was no child born." Mr. Reed was interrupted by Judge Porterfield just as he was finishing that statement.

"There isn't a man in this county who, when he went to a lawyer and found what the law was, would not ask for wills for himself and his wife," Judge Porterfield said firmly.

"I would as soon have my two hands cut off as to tote a will to my wife," Mr. Reed exclaimed in reply. "It appears that as soon as the defendant learned the law on that point he asked for the wills——"

"So would any innocent man," Judge Porterfield again interrupted. Judge Porterfield sustained the objection to the conversation regarding the wills.

HOW A TRUST IS "DISSOLVED"

Kansas City, Nov. 29.—The tobacco trust finally has given up the ghost. It admits that in a circular letter just received by Kansas City dealers. The new American Tobacco company is composed of seven companies, but "orders for their goods should be sent to the respective companies just as heretofore," the circular reads in part:

BROUGHT VICTIM'S BODY HOME

Young Farmer's Son Disappears After Leaving Buggy With Corpse at Father's Gate.

Moline, Kan., Nov. 29.—With a dead girl in the seat beside him, Don Brittain, son of a farmer living near Elk Falls, drove up to his father's home in the evening, hitched the horse at the gate and disappeared. The body was that of Maude Bingham, 18 years old, the young man's sweetheart. The two had gone riding early in the afternoon, at which time the girl apparently was in the best of health.

An examination by the coroner tended to show that death was due to a drug taken because of the young woman's condition. The contents of the stomach have been sent to the state chemist for analysis. A coroner's inquest will be held December 11.

NO DRINKS IN CHOP SUEY JOINTS

St. Joseph Chinese Restaurants Said to Have Served Intoxicants to Young Girls and Boys.

St. Joseph, Nov. 29.—By order of the board of police commissioners the chop suey restaurants here ceased serving intoxicating drinks. The Chinese restaurants are in rooms over saloons. Complaint was made that drinks were dispensed to girls and boys. For some time ministers have been conducting a crusade against these places, but the police insisted that the law was not violated. However, John D. McNeeley, president of the police board, said there was so much criticism that it was decided to issue the order.

Kafir Flour on Market.

Wichita, Nov. 29.—That kafir corn can be ground into flour suitable for flapjacks, waffles, gems, muffins and breakfast dainties of other names, is proved here by a miller, who has solved the secret of grinding the forage product in such a way that it makes delicious morning tempters. Millers here began experiments some time ago with kafir corn to ascertain if it could be made into anything other than stock feed, and one of them has just placed on the market kafir corn flour, not meal, in small packages.

Is your table nice enough for a Thanksgiving dinner?

Dear Amy:-

You and Bob must take Thanksgiving dinner with us. John has just made a good business deal, and bought me a new dining room set. I want "to show it off."

I'm not bashful about confessing this to an old friend like you, Amy. We women all do love pretty homes. If husbands, who can easily afford it, only knew how much htppiness they could give their wives by turning them loose in a furniture store, to buy what they wanted, wouldn't the furniture fly, though?

Lovingly,
Lou.

TWO LIVES.

Two babes were born in the self-same town,
On the very same bright day.
They laughed and cried in their mothers' arms
In the very, self-same way;
And both seemed pure and innocent
As falling flakes of snow;
But one of them lived in the terraced house
And one in the street below.

Two children played in the self-same town,
And the children both were fair;
But one had curls brushed smooth and round,
The other had tangled hair.
The children both grew up apace,
As other children grow,
But one of them lived in the terraced house
And one in the streets below.

Two maidens wrought in the self-same town,
And one was wedded and loved.
The other saw through the curtains part
The world where her sister moved,
And one was smiling, a happy bride,
The other knew care and woe,
For one of them lived in a terraced house
And one in the street below.

Two women lay dead in the self-same town,
And one had tender care,
The other was left to die alone
On her pallet so thin and bare.
One had many to mourn her loss,
For the other few tears would flow,
For one had lived in the terraced house
And one in the streets below.

If Jesus, who died for rich and poor,
In wondrous holy love,
Took both the sisters in his arms
And carried them above,
Then all the difference vanished quite,
For in heaven none would know
Which of them lived in the terraced house
And which in the street below.

Land + Water = Good Crops
Land — Water = Failure

The Big Horn Basin and Yellowstone Valley Have an Abundance of Water for Irrigation Purposes

The Government has made ample provision to supply each and every farmer under its canals with sufficient water during the crop growing season to cover each and every acre of his farm two feet deep. This is equal to twelve heavy rains of two inches each. Just think what it would have meant to your community during the crop growing season, just closed, if your farmers could have turned on twelve two-inch rains at will. You can do this next year and every year thereafter as long as you are farming, if you will go with me to Powell, Wyoming, and file on one of the Government irrigated homesteads, now ready for entry.
